CALIFORNIA HOUSING DEFENSE FUND v. CITY OF LA CAÑADA FLINTRIDGE
Case Number: 23STCP02614 [Related to Case No. 23STPC02575]

Hearing Date: March 1, 2024

ORDER ON PETITIONS FOR WRIT OF MANDATE AND COMPLAINTS FOR DECLARATORY RELIEF

Under the Housing Accountability Act (HAA), Government Code[1] section 65589.5, a municipality may not "disapprove" a qualifying affordable housing project on the grounds it does not comply with the municipality's zoning and general plan if the developer submitted either a statutorily defined "preliminary application" or a "complete development application" while the city's housing element was not in substantial compliance with state law. (See § 65589.5, subds. (d)(5), (h)(5), (o)(1).) This statutory provision, colloquially known as the "Builder's Remedy," incentivizes compliance with the Housing Element Law by temporarily suspending the power of non-compliant municipalities to enforce their zoning rules against qualifying affordable housing projects.

Respondents, the City of La Cañada Flintridge, the City of La Cañada Flintridge Community Development Department, and the City of La Cañada Flintridge City Council (collectively, Respondents or the City) determined Petitioner 600 Foothill Owner, L.P.'s (600 Foothill) proposed mixed-use development did not qualify for the Builder's Remedy. Petitioner 600 Foothill, Petitioner California Housing Defense Fund (CHDF), and Petitioners-Intervenors the People of the State of California, Ex. Rel. Rob Bonta and the California Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD)(collectively, Intervenors), challenge Respondents' decision.

The petitions are granted. The court orders a writ shall issue directing Respondents to set aside their May 1, 2023 decision finding 600 Foothill's application does not qualify as a Builder's Remedy project and to process the application in accordance with the HAA.

JUDICIAL NOTICE

600 Foothill's Request for Judicial Notice (RJN) filed November 8, 2023 is denied as to Exhibit A and granted as to Exhibits B through F. Respondents' objections to Exhibits B through F are overruled. Respondents' objections 1 and 4 are sustained to the extent they pertain to Exhibit A.

[1] All further undesignated statutory references are to this code.

Respondents' RJN in support of its opposition to the 600 Foothill petition is granted as to all referenced exhibits except as to Exhibits D-3, V and BB.[2]

600 Foothill's Reply RJN of Exhibit AA is granted.

CHDF's RJN of Exhibits A through D is granted.

Respondents' RJN in support of its opposition to the CHDF petition is granted as to all referenced exhibits except as to Exhibit D-3 and V. Except as to Exhibits D-3 and V, the objections of Intervenors and CHDF are overruled.

For all RJNs, the court does not judicially notice any particular interpretation of the records. Nor does the court judicially notice the truth of hearsay statements within the judicially noticed records.

EVIDENTIARY OBJECTIONS, MOTION IN LIMINE AND CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE SECTION 1094.5, SUBDIVISION (E)

Preliminarily, the court finds none of the parties' evidentiary objections are material to the disposition of any cause of action or issue. The court nonetheless rules on the objections for completeness. The court notes it is not required to parse through long narratives with generalized objections. The court may overrule an objection if the material objected to contains unobjectionable material. The parties make many objections to multiple sentences where much or some of the material is not objectionable. (See Fibreboard Paper Products Corp. v. East Bay Union of Machinists, Local 1304, United Steelworkers . . . (1964) 227 Cal.App.2d 675, 712.)

600 Foothill's Objections

Declaration of Lynda-Jo Hernandez: All objections are overruled.
Declaration of Kim Bowan: All objections are overruled except 3, 12 and 17.
Declaration of Peter Sheridan: All objections are overruled.
Declaration of Keith Eich: All objections are overruled.
Declaration of Susan Koleda: All objections are overruled.
Declaration of Teresa Walker: All objections are overruled except 3, 11, 17, 26 and 29.
Declaration of Richard Gunter III: All objections are overruled except 5-8 and 14-20.

[2] Contrary to 600 Foothill's assertion, Respondents did not request judicial notice of Exhibit A to the Koleda declaration. 600 Foothill and Intervenors appear correct—Respondents did not submit Exhibits D-3 or V with the Koleda declaration. Accordingly, the court cannot judicially notice Exhibits D-3 or V.

Respondents' Objections to 600 Foothill's Evidence

Declaration of Melinda Coy: All objections are overruled.
Reply Declaration of Garret Weyand: All objections are overruled except 3, 4, 7 and 8.[3]

Intervenors' Objections

Declaration of Susan Koleda: All objections are overruled.

CHDF's Objections

Declaration of Teresa Walker: All objections are overruled except 2, 4 and 6.
Declaration of Susan Koleda: All objections are overruled.
Declarations of Eich, Bowman, Gunter III and Hernandez are all overruled as discussed infra.

Motion In Limine

Respondents' Motion In Limine to Exclude Issues or Evidence (filed February 5, 2024) is denied. Respondents do not demonstrate 600 Foothill has submitted any evidence concerning "infeasibility" of the project that is outside of the administrative record. Respondents do not require discovery to respond to 600 Foothill's infeasibility arguments given such arguments are based entirely on the administrative record. (See § 65589.5, subd. (m)(1); Code Civ. Proc., § 1094.5, subd. (e).)

Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5, Subdivision (e)

Section 65589.5, subdivision (m)(1) in the HAA specifies "[a]ny action brought to enforce the provisions of this section shall be brought pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure. . . ." Accordingly, the HAA causes of action are subject to the limitations on extra-record evidence in Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5, subd. (e). Nonetheless, the HAA causes of action involve questions of substantial compliance with the Housing Element Law, governed, at least in part, by Code of Civil Procedure section 1085. (See e.g., § 65587, subd. (d)(2).) Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5, subdivision (e) does not apply to a cause of action governed by Code of Civil Procedure section 1085.

The parties have neglected to suggest which parts of their declarations are subject to Code of Civil Procedure sections 1094.5, 1085 or both. The parties also have not moved to augment the administrative record pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5, subdivision (e). Under the circumstances, the court will admit and consider the parties' declarations despite the court having made no order to augment the record.[4] The court notes, however, even if the court excluded all the extra-record evidence submitted, including the lengthy Koleda declarations, the result here would not change.

[3] The declaration is properly submitted to respond to the defense of unclean hands and allegations of "manipulation of the HCD approval process" discussed in Respondents' opposition brief.

BACKGROUND

The Housing Element Law[5]

"In 1980, the Legislature enacted the Housing Element Law, 'a separate, comprehensive statutory scheme that substantially strengthened the requirements of the housing element component of local general plans.' " (Martinez v. City of Clovis (2023) 90 Cal.App.5th 193, 221-222 [Martinez].)

A housing element within a general plan must include certain components, including, but not limited to: an assessment of housing needs and the resources available and constraints to meeting those needs; an inventory of sites available to meet the locality's housing needs at different income levels, including the Regional Housing Needs Allocation (RHNA); a statement of goals, quantified objectives, and policies to affirmatively further fair housing; and a schedule of actions to address the housing element's goals and objectives. (§ 65583, subds. (a), (b), (c).)

"A municipality must review its housing element for the appropriateness of its housing goals, objectives, and policies and must revise the housing element in accordance with a statutory schedule. (§ 65588, subds. (a), (b).) The interval between the due dates for the revised housing element is referred to as a planning period or cycle, which usually is eight years." (Martinez, supra, 90 Cal.App.5th at 221-222.)

"Before revising its housing element, a local government must make a draft available for public comment and, after comments are received, submit the draft, as revised to address the comments, to the Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD). (§ 65585, subd. (b)(1); see § 65588 [review and revision of housing element by local government].) After a draft is submitted, the HCD must review it, consider any written comments from any public agency, group, or person, and make written findings as to whether the draft substantially complies with the Housing Element Law. (§ 65585, subds. (b)(3), (c), (d); . . . .) [¶] If the HCD finds the draft does not substantially comply with the Housing Element Law, the local government must either (1) change the draft to substantially comply or (2) adopt the draft without changes along with a resolution containing findings that explain its belief that the draft substantially complies with the law. (§ 65585, subd. (f).)" (Martinez, supra, 90 Cal.App.5th at 221-222.)

The City's October 2021 and October 2022 Draft Housing Elements, and HCD's Findings the City Had Not Attained Substantial Compliance with the Housing Element Law

Under the Housing Element Law, the City had a statutory deadl ne of October 15, 2021 to adopt a substantially compliant 6th cycle housing element. (AR 443.) The City submitted its draft housing element to HCD on that day. (AR 443.)

On December 3, 2021, HCD informed the City while the draft "addresses many statutory requirements," to comply with the Housing Element Law, signif cant revisions were required. (AR 443, 445-453.) HCD identified fourteen areas within the first version of the City's draft housing element that required specific programmatic revisions, organized into three broad categories—housing needs, resources, and constraints; housing programs; and public participation. (AR 445-453.) As examples, HCD found the draft housing element lacked a sufficient site inventory analysis identifying potential sites for housing development distributed in a manner to affirmatively further fair housing, or an inadequate site inventory of the City's vacant and underutilized sites to meet the City's RHNA determination. (AR 445-447.)

Ten months later, on October 4, 2022, the City adopted its 2021-2029 housing element (October 2022 Housing Element). (AR 4504-4508, 4509 [Housing Element].) The City thereafter submitted its adopted Housing Element to HCD for review. (AR 5263.)

On December 6, 2022, HCD informed the City "[t]he adopted housing element addresses most statutory requirements described in HCD's [prior] review; however, additional revisions are necessary to fully comply with State Housing Element Law." (AR 5263 [referencing a May 26, 2021 review].) HCD's findings of non-compliance for the October 2022 Housing Element are discussed further in the Analysis section infra.

600 Foothill's Preliminary Application

On November 10, 2022—after the City's adoption of the October 2022 Housing Element but before HCD's December 6, 2022 review—600 Foothill submitted the Preliminary Application seeking the City's approval to construct a mixed-used project on a site located at 600 Foothill Boulevard, which is currently occupied by two vacant church buildings and a surface parking lot. (AR 5241.) 600 Foothill proposed to build 80 apartments on the site, 16 of which (or 20 percent) would be reserved for persons earning less than sixty percent of the area median income (the Project). (AR 5243.) 600 Foothill's Preliminary Application explained "given that the City continues to have a Housing Element that is out of compliance with state law," 600 Foothill proposed the Project as a Builder's Remedy project pursuant to section 65589.5, subdivision (d)(5) meaning the Project was not required to account for the City's zoning ordinance or general plan land use designation. (AR 5235.)

The City Staff Acknowledge Changes to the October 2022 Housing Element Are Necessary to Comply with HCD's Findings

The City's Director of Community Development, Susan Koleda, acknowledged on January 11, 2023 in an email communication that "[a]ll additional changes to the Housing Element have yet to be determined but will likely require additional [Planning Commission/City Council] approval." (AR 12894.) At the City's January 12, 2023 Planning Commission meeting, City staff acknowledged revisions were required for "the Housing Element to be in conformance" with applicable law. (AR 5274-5275.) Director Koleda also stated in a February 9, 2023 email communication that "additional clarifications were required" to the October 2022 Housing Element, and "[t]he additional information will be incorporated into a revised Housing Element, scheduled to be adopted by the City Council on February 21, 2023. It will then be submitted to HCD for review as a third submittal." (AR 13011.)

The City Adopts a February 2023 Housing Element, Fails to Rezone, and "Certifies" Its Substantial Compliance with the Housing Element Law

On February 21, 2023, the City adopted its third revised housing element which addressed the deficiencies to the October 2022 Housing Element identified by HCD. (AR 6274-6279.) In its resolution adopting the revised housing element, the City Council stated it "certifies that the City's Housing Element was in substantial compliance with State Housing Element law as of the October 4, 2022 Housing Element adopted by the City Council. . . ." (AR 6274.) Despite use of the word "certifies" in the City's resolution, Director Koleda opined at the February 21, 2023 council meeting that the "consensus" from the City Attorney, the City's consultants, and HCD was that "self-certification" of the City's housing element "is not an option." (AR 6207-6208; see also Opposition to Intervenors 19:18-21:7 ["wrongly accuse . . . of 'back-dating' and 'self-certifying' "].)

At the time the City adopted its third revised housing element on February 21, 2023, it had not completed the rezoning required by the Housing Element Law. Accordingly, on April 24, 2023, HCD found, although the February 2023 housing element addressed the previously identified deficiencies in the October 2022 Housing Element, and met "most of the statutory requirements of State Housing Law," the City was not in substantial compliance with the Housing Element Law because the City adopted the February 2023 housing element more than one year past the statutory due date of October 15, 2021 and the City had not completed its statutorily required rezoning. (AR 6297-6300; see also AR 7170-7171.) As a result, HCD found the City could not be deemed in substantial compliance with state law until it completed all required rezones. (AR 6297-6300; see § 65588, subd. (e)(4)(C)(iii). ["A jurisdiction that adopts a housing element more than one year after the statutory deadline . . . shall not be found in substantial compliance with this article until it has completed the rezoning required by" the Housing Element Law].)

In its April 24, 2023 letter, HCD also opined that "a local jurisdiction cannot 'backdate' compliance to the date of adoption of a housing element," and the City was not in substantial compliance with the Housing Element Law as of October 4, 2022, notwithstanding its "certification" in the City's February 21, 2023 resolution. (AR 6297-6298.)

The City Determines 600 Foothill's Preliminary Application Could Not Rely on the Builder's Remedy and the City Council Affirms the Decision

On February 10, 2023, in response to 600 Foothill's Preliminary Application, the City issued an incompleteness determination (the First Incompleteness Determination) requesting additional detail on several issues. The First Incompleteness Determination did not allege any inconsistencies between the Project and the City's zoning ordinance and general plan. (AR 5276-5279.) Petitioner supplemented its application materials in response to the First Incompleteness Determination on April 28, 2023. (See AR 6305, 7095-7096, 7152-7153, 7169, 7166, 8050-8060.)

On March 1, 2023, the City issued a second incompleteness determination (the Second Incompleteness Determination). The Second Incompleteness Determination advised 600 Foothill the Builder's Remedy did not apply to the Project making the Preliminary Application incomplete for its failure to comply with the City's general plan zoning laws and residential density limitations. (AR 6280-6281; see AR 7176.)

On March 9, 2023, 600 Foothill appealed the Second Incompleteness Determination. (See § 65943, subd. (c); AR 6282-6287, AR 12926.) In support of its appeal, 600 Foothill provided a letter from its attorney explaining 600 Foothill's position the City Council's failure to grant the appeal would constitute a violation of the HAA. (AR 6304-6462, 6317 ["flouts the law"].)

The City Council heard 600 Foothill's appeal on May 1, 2023. The City Council voted unanimously to adopt Resolution No. 23-14, denying the appeal and upholding the Second Incompleteness Determination (the May 1, 2023 Decision). (AR 7151-7160, AR 7161-7168.)

On June 8, 2023, HCD sent the City a Notice of Violation advising the City it violated the HAA and Housing Element Law by denying 600 Foothill's appeal. (AR 7170-7175.) HCD summarized the alleged violations:

> The City cannot 'backdate' its housing element compliance date to an earlier date so as to avoid approving a Builder's Remedy application. In short, the October 4, 2022 Adopted Housing Element did not substantially comply with State Housing Element Law, regardless of any declaration by the City. Therefore, the Builder's Remedy applies, and the City's denial of the Project application based on inconsistency with zoning and land use designation is a violation of the HAA. (AR 7170.)

The City Determines the Application is Complete and the Project is Inconsistent with City's Zoning Code and General Plan

On May 26, 2023, the City informed 600 Foothill that its Project application was complete. (AR 7169.) On June 24, 2023, the City advised 600 Foothill:

> [I]t remains the City's position (as affirmed by City Council on May 1, 2023) that the 2021-2029 Housing Element was in substantial compliance with state law as of October 4, 2022. Based on that, staff reviewed the project for consistency with the General Plan, applicable provisions of the Downtown Village Specific Plan (DVSP), the Zoning Code, and the density proposed within the 2021-2029 Housing Element. In accordance with [] § 65589.5(j)(2)(A), this letter serves as an explanation of the reasons that the City considers the proposed project to be inconsistent, not in compliance, or not in conformity with these aforementioned guiding documents. (AR 7176.)

The City Completes Rezoning and HCD Certifies the City's Substantial Compliance with the Housing Element Law

On September 12, 2023, the City adopted a resolution completing its rezoning commitments set forth in its housing element. HCD reviewed the materials and, on November 17, 2023, sent a letter to the City finding the City had "completed actions to address requirements described in HCD's April 24, 2023 review letter." (Coy Decl. ¶ 12, Exh. D.)

Writ Proceedings

On July 21, 2023, 600 Foothill filed its verified petition for writ of mandate and complaint for declaratory and injunctive relief against Respondents. On July 25, 2023, CHDF filed its verified petition for writ of mandate and complaint for declaratory relief. The court has related the two actions and coordinated them for trial and legal briefing. The court denied Respondents' motion to consolidate the two actions.

On December 20, 2023, pursuant to a stipulation, Intervenors filed their petition for writ of mandate and complaint for declaratory relief in the CHDF proceeding.

For this proceeding, the court has considered 600 Foothill's Opening Brief, CHDF's Opening Brief, Intervenors' Opening Brief, Respondents' three opposition briefs, 600 Foothill's Reply Brief, CHDF's Reply Brief, Intervenors' Reply Brief, the administrative record, the joint appendix, all requests for judicial notice, and all declarations (including exhibits).[6]

STANDARD OF REVIEW

Pursuant to the Los Angeles County Court Rules (Local Rules), "[t]he opening and opposition briefs must state the parties' respective positions on whether the petitioner is seeking traditional or administrative mandamus, or both." (Local Rules, Rule 3.231, subd. (i)(1).) The parties must also provide their position on the standard of review in their briefing. (See Local Rule, Rule 3.231, subd. (i)(3).)

600 Foothill, CHDF and Respondents do not suggest the standard of review that applies to the causes of action. Intervenors argue Code of Civil Procedure section 1085, not Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5, applies to their petition.

Under Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5, subdivision (b), the relevant issues are whether (1) the respondent has proceeded without jurisdiction, (2) there was a fair trial, and (3) there was a prejudicial abuse of discretion. An abuse of discretion is established if the agency has not proceeded in the manner required by law, the decision is not supported by the findings, or the findings are not supported by the evidence. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1094.5, subd. (b).)

In administrative mandate proceedings not affecting a fundamental vested right, the trial court reviews administrative findings for substantial evidence. Substantial evidence is relevant evidence that a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion (California Youth Authority v. State Personnel Board (2002) 104 Cal.App.4th 575, 584-85), or evidence of ponderable legal significance which is reasonable in nature, credible and of solid value. (Mohilef v. Janovici (1996) 51 Cal.App.4th 267, 305 n. 28.) Under the substantial evidence test, "[c]ourts may reverse an [administrative] decision only if, based on the evidence . . ., a reasonable person could not reach the conclusion reached by the agency." (Sierra Club v. California Coastal Com. (1993) 12 Cal.App.4th 602, 610.) The court does "not weigh the evidence, consider the credibility of witnesses, or resolve conflicts in the evidence or in the reasonable inferences that may be drawn from it." (Doe v. Regents of University of California (2016) 5 Cal.App.5th 1055, 1073.)

To obtain a traditional writ of mandate under Code of Civil Procedure section 1085, there are two essential findings. First, there must be a clear, present, and ministerial duty on the part of the respondent. Second, a petitioner must have a clear, present, and beneficial right to the performance of that duty. (California Ass'n for Health Services at Home v. Department of Health Services (2007) 148 Cal.App.4th 696, 704.) "Generally, mandamus is available to compel a public agency's performance or to correct an agency's abuse of discretion when the action being compelled or corrected is ministerial." (AIDS Healthcare Foundation v. Los Angeles County Dept. of Public Health (2011) 197 Cal.App.4th 693, 700.)

An agency is presumed to have regularly performed its official duties. (Evid. Code, § 664.) Under Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5, the "trial court must afford a strong presumption of correctness concerning the administrative findings." (Fukuda v. City of Angels (1999) 20 Cal.4th 805, 817.) A petitioner seeking administrative mandamus has the burden of proof and must cite the administrative record to support its contentions. (See Alford v. Pierno (1972) 27 Cal.App.3d 682, 691.) Similarly, a petitioner "bears the burden of proof in a mandate proceeding brought under Code of Civil Procedure section 1085." (California Correctional Peace Officers Assn. v. State Personnel Bd. (1995) 10 Cal.4th 1133, 1154.) A reviewing court "will not act as counsel for either party to a [challenge to an administrative decision] and will not assume the task of initiating and prosecuting a search of the record for any purpose of discovering errors not pointed out in the briefs." (Fox v. Erickson (1950) 99 Cal.App.2d 740, 742 [context of civil appeal.)

" 'On questions of law arising in mandate proceedings, [the court] exercise[s] independent judgment.' . . . . Interpretation of a statute or regulation is a question of law subject to independent review." (Christensen v. Lightbourne (2017) 15 Cal.App.5th 1239, 1251.)

ANALYSIS

Petition for Writ of Mandate – Violations of the HAA

600 Foothill, CHDF, and Intervenors seek a writ of mandate to enforce the requirements of the HAA against the City. Among other relief, they seek a writ directing Respondents to set aside the City Council's "decision, on May 1, 2023, to disapprove an application for a housing development project at 600 Foothill Boulevard, and compelling Respondent to approve the application or, in the alternative, to process it in accordance with the law." (CHDF Pet. Prayer ¶ 1; see also 600 Foothill Pet. Prayer ¶¶ 3-5 and Intervenors Pet. Prayer ¶¶ 1-3.)[7]

Standard of Review

As noted, the HAA at section 65589.5, subdivision (m)(1) specifies "[a]ny action brought to enforce the provisions of this section shall be brought pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure. . . ." Nonetheless, Intervenors argue Code of Civil Procedure section 1085, not Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5, applies because Respondents have a "ministerial duty under the HAA to process the Foothill Owner's Builder's Remedy application." (Intervenors' Opening Brief 10:27; see Sunset Drive Corp. v. City of Redlands (1999) 73 Cal.App.4th 215, 221-222. ["A writ of mandate may be issued by a court to compel the performance of a duty imposed by law."])

While there is a colorable argument Code of Civil Procedure section 1085 applies to parts of the HAA claims involving the Housing Element Law, given the Legislature's clear instructions in section 65589.5, subdivision (m)(1), the court concludes Petitioners' writ petitions to enforce the HAA are all governed by Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5.

[7] 600 Foothill's writ claims under the HAA are alleged in its third through fifth causes of action while CHDF's and Intervenors' are alleged in their first causes of action.

The court's task "is therefore to determine whether the City 'proceeded in the manner required by law,' with a decision supported by the findings, and findings supported by the evidence; if not, the City abused its discretion." (California Renters Legal Advocacy and Education Fund v. City of San Mateo (2021) 68 Cal.App.5th 820, 837.) The City "bear[s] the burden of proof that its decision has conformed to all of the conditions specified in Section 65589.5." (§ 65589.6.)

As noted, based on the circumstances, the court reaches the same result in its analysis even if the petitions, or parts thereof, are governed by Code of Civil Procedure section 1085. (See e.g., § 65587, subd. (d)(2) [action to compel compliance with Housing Element Law "shall" be brought pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1085].) The HAA claims raise legal questions of statutory construction and concerns about Respondents' substantial compliance with the Housing Element Law. The court decides such issues independently, regardless of whether Code of Civil Procedure section 1094.5 or 1085 governs. (See e.g. Martinez, supra, 90 Cal.App.5th at 237.)

The City "Disapproved" the Builder's Remedy Project

600 Foothill contends the City "disapproved" the Project, as the term is defined in the HAA, because the City "determined that the Project could not proceed because it believed the Builder's Remedy was inapplicable." (600 Foothill Opening Brief 7:11-12.) CHDF and Intervenors make the same argument. (CHDF Opening Brief 21:25-28; Intervenors' Opening Brief 15:27-16:3.)

The Builder's Remedy, at section 65589.5, subdivision (d)(5) provides in pertinent part:

> (d) A local agency shall not disapprove a housing development project . . . for very low, low-, or moderate-income households . . . unless it makes written findings, based upon a preponderance of the evidence in the record, as to one of the following:
> (5) The housing development project . . . is inconsistent with both the jurisdiction's zoning ordinance and general plan land use designation as specified in any element of the general plan as it existed on the date the application was deemed complete, and the jurisdiction has adopted a revised housing element in accordance with Section 65588 that is in substantial compliance with this article. (Emphasis added.)

Thus, to prove their claim under the HAA and to proceed with the Project as a Builder's Remedy, Petitioners must show the City "disapprove[d] a housing development project."

(§ 65589.5, subd. (d).)[8] Section 65589.5, subdivision (h)(6) provides to " 'disapprove the housing development project' includes any instance in which a local agency does any of the following: (A) Votes on a proposed housing development project application and the application is disapproved, including any required land use approvals or entitlements necessary for the issuance of a building permit . . . ." (Emphasis added.)

Here, on May 1, 2023, the City Council denied Petitioner's appeal of the Second Incompleteness Determination stating:

> [T]he City Council of the City of La Cañada Flintridge hereby denies the appeal and upholds the Planning Division's March 1, 2023, incompleteness determination for the mixed use project at 600 Foothill Boulevard, on the basis that the 'builder's remedy' under the Housing Accountability Act does not apply and is not available for the project, and that the project did not 'vest' as a 'builder's remedy' project as alleged in the project's SB 330 Preliminary Application submission dated November 14, 2022, because the City's Housing Element was, as of October 4, 2022, in substantial compliance with the Housing Element law. (AR 7167.)

Notably, Director Koleda informed the City Council, prior to its vote on the appeal, that "if the appeal is denied, the project will be processed accordingly as a standard, nonbuilder's remedy project." (AR 7103.) Thus, the City Council "voted" on a proposed housing development project application and determined the Project could not proceed as a Builder's Remedy project—that is, the Project would be subject to the City's discretionary approvals.

The Legislature has expressed its intent that the HAA "be interpreted and implemented in a manner to afford the fullest possible weight to the interest of, and the approval and provision of, housing." (§ 65589.5, subd. (a)(2)(L); California Renters Legal Advocacy & Education Fund. v. City of San Mateo, supra, 68 Cal.App.5th at 854.) In addition, "[a]s a basic principle of statutory construction, 'include' is generally used as a word of enlargement and not of limitation. . . . Thus, where the word 'include' is used to refer to specified items, it may be expanded to cover other items." (Rea v. Blue Shield of California (2014) 226 Cal.App.4th 1209, 1227.) Applying these canons of statutory construction, the court finds section 65589.5, subdivision (h)(6) should be given a broad construction. Because the City Council made clear any required land use approvals or entitlements would not be issued for the Project, as a Builder's Remedy project, the City Council's May 1, 2023 decision falls within the HAA's broad definition of "disapprove."

[8] It is undisputed the Project constitutes a "housing development project . . . for very low, low-, or moderate-income households" within the meaning of the HAA. HCD advised the City on June 8, 2023: "The Project is proposed as an 80-unit mixed-use project where 20 percent of the units (16 units) will be affordable to lower-income households. The residential portion equates to approximately 89 percent of the Project; therefore, the Project qualifies as a 'housing development project' under the HAA (Gov. Code, § 65589.5, subd. (h)(2)(B))." (AR 7171.) Respondents develop no argument to the contrary.

Respondents contend:

> 600 Foothill defined the "approvals" and "entitlements" it sought in its application – namely, a Conditional Use Permit (USE-2023-0016), Tentative Tract Map 83375 (LAND-2023-0001), and Tree Removal Permit (DEV-2023-0003). (AR 5285.) There was no vote on May 1, 2023, on any of these "required land use approvals" or "entitlements" and, thus, . . . the "vote" needed under the HAA has not occurred. (Opposition to 600 Foothill 19:22-26 [emphasis in original].)

Respondents' narrow interpretation of the statute is unpersuasive. (See § 65589.5, subd. (a)(2)(L).) While the City Council may not have voted to deny the conditional use permit, tentative tract map, and tree removal permit, the City Council voted on May 1, 2023 and determined the Project could not proceed as the project proposed—a Builder's Remedy project. Because the Project was proposed as a Builder's Remedy, the City Council's May 1, 2023 vote on the project application was a "disapproval" within the meaning of the HAA.

Respondents also contend "[t]he City cannot as a matter of law approve or disapprove a development project, including a project under the Builder's Remedy, prior to conducting environmental review under CEQA . . . ."[9] (Opposition to 600 Foothill 16:15-16.) Respondents argue the HAA does not authorize the court "to order the City to accommodate CEQA review after a possible finding by the Court of a violation of the HAA." (Opposition to 600 Foothill 16:25-26 [emphasis in original].)

Again, Respondents' arguments are unpersuasive—a city can disapprove a project without having undertaken CEQA review. Nothing requires a city to undertake CEQA review before deciding to disapprove a project. CEQA does not apply to "[p]rojects which a public agency rejects or disapproves." (Pub. Res. Code, § 21080, subd. (b)(5).) "[I]f an agency at any time decides not to proceed with a project, CEQA is inapplicable from that time forward." (Las Lomas Land Co., LLC v. City of Los Angeles (2009) 177 Cal.App.4th 837, 850.) Respondents do not cite any language from the HAA that supports their position.[10]

[9] CEQA refers to the California Environmental Quality Act at Public Resources Code section 21000, et seq.

[10] During argument, the City emphasized its reliance on section 65589.5, subdivision (m)(1) its language concerning finality—an action cannot be brought to enforce the HAA's provisions until there is a "final action on a housing development project" and the City did not take final action on the Project—it merely determined the Project could not be built as a Builder's Remedy project and would be subject to discretionary approvals. As noted by 600 Foothill, an action to enforce the HAA may be initiated after a municipality imposes conditions upon, disapproves or takes final action on a housing project. The City made clear in its May 1, 2023 Decision that the Project could not proceed as proposed as a Builder's Remedy project.

While CEQA review is preserved by the HAA[11] nothing suggests a disapproval under the HAA can occur only after CEQA review or that a court lacks authority to issue a writ to compel compliance with the HAA, even if a Builder's Remedy project is subject to CEQA compliance. Notably, a suit to enforce the HAA must be filed "no later than 90 days from" project disapproval. (§ 65589.5, subd. (m)(1).) Further, the HAA must "be interpreted and implemented in a manner to afford the fullest possible weight to the interest of, and the approval and provision of, housing." (§ 65589.5, subd. (a)(2)(L).) Respondents' interpretation of the HAA, under which a disapproval cannot occur prior to CEQA review, would hinder the approval and provision of housing. Accordingly, an agency may "disapprove" a project under the HAA before conducting any environmental review under CEQA, and a petitioner's claim to enforce the HAA may be ripe for consideration even if CEQA review has not been performed or completed.

Respondents' reliance on Schellinger Brothers v. City of Sebastopol (2009) 179 Cal.App.4th 1245, 1262 [Schellinger] is misplaced. Schellenger involved a request to compel the certification of an environmental impact report. Schellinger did not hold that all claims under the HAA or other housing laws are unripe or cannot be filed until CEQA review is completed. The case did not address CEQA in the context of a claim to enforce the Builder's Remedy provision in the HAA. The case also did not suggest a trial court lacks discretion to structure a writ issued pursuant to the HAA in a manner that allows for CEQA review to be completed. "An opinion is not authority for propositions not considered." (People v. Knoller (2007) 41 Cal.4th 139, 154-55.)

The court acknowledges Schellinger advised the HAA "specifically pegs its applicability to the approval, denial or conditional approval of a 'housing development project' . . . which, as previously noted, can occur only after the EIR is certified. (CEQA Guidelines, § 15090(a).)" (Schellinger, supra, 179 Cal.App.4th at 1262.) Nonetheless, the court's statement must be interpreted in the context of the issues before that Court. Because the agency there had not disapproved the project at issue, the Court's reference to the "denial" of a housing development project was a dictum. In any event, as discussed, Schellinger did not decide the legal question presented here—whether the City "disapproved" a Project when it determined, through a vote of its City Council, the Builder's Remedy Project did not qualify for the Builder's Remedy under the HAA.[12]

[11] See section 65589.5, subdivisions (e) and (o)(6).

[12] Respondents indicate the City took action to pay for CEQA review of the Project starting in September 2023. (Opposition to 600 Foothill 18:11-14 [citing Sheridan Decl. Exh. JJ].) By that time, however, the City Council had already determined the Project could not proceed as proposed pursuant to the Builder's Remedy. (AR 7167; see also AR 7176.) Respondents do not explain the purpose of CEQA review for a project the City Council has determined could not be approved consistent with the law. This evidence does not support Respondents' position the City Council's May 1, 2023 Decision did not constitute a "disapproval" under the HAA.

Based on the foregoing, Petitioners have demonstrated the City Council "disapproved" the Project with its May 1, 2023 Decision within the meaning of the HAA. Respondents do not show the petitions are "unripe" because CEQA review has not been completed, or that CEQA review is a prerequisite to the "disapproval" of a Project under the HAA. In light of the court's conclusion, the court need not reach the parties' contentions regarding California Renters v. City San Mateo (2021) 60 Cal.App.5th 820 and appellate briefing from that case. (See Opposition to 600 Foothill 17:10-28 [citing Sheridan Decl. Exh. EE and FF].)

"Vesting" of the Builder's Remedy and the Date the Project Application was Deemed Complete

Respondents assert the filing of a SB 330 preliminary application does not "vest" the Builder's Remedy because "when a city is determining whether it can make the finding in subsection (d)(5), it considers the status of its Housing Element as of the date the finding is made." (Opposition to 600 Foothill 23:11-13 [emphasis in original].)

The HAA defines "deemed complete" to mean that "the applicant has submitted a preliminary application pursuant to Section 65941.1." (§ 65589.5, subd. (h)(5) [emphasis added].) Section 65589.5, subdivision (o)(1) states "a housing development project shall be subject only to the ordinances, policies, and standards adopted and in effect when a preliminary application including all of the information required by subdivision (a) of Section 65941.1 was submitted." Construing these statutory provisions, along with section 65589.5, subdivision (d), the court concludes a Builder's Remedy "vests" if the local agency does not have a substantially compliant housing element at the time a complete preliminary application pursuant to section 65941.1 is submitted and "deemed complete."

Respondents have not developed any argument the Preliminary Application, submitted in November 2022, lacked the information required by section 65941.1 or was otherwise incomplete within the meaning of the HAA. (See AR 5234-5246.)[13] Thus, if the City's housing element did not substantially comply with the Housing Element Law at that time (see analysis infra), the Builder's Remedy "vested" when 600 Foothill submitted its Preliminary Application in November 2022.[14]

Respondents' reliance on subdivision (o) of the HAA is misplaced. Section 65589.5, subdivision (o)(4) provides " 'ordinances, policies, and standards' includes general plan, community plan, specific plan, zoning, design review standards and criteria, subdivision standards and criteria, and any other rules, regulations, requirements, and policies of a local agency." (Empasis added.)

[13] 600 Foothill's Preliminary Application used the form generated by the City. 600 Foothill completed the form and included necessary attachments.

[14] 600 Foothill's Preliminary Application was "deemed complete," within the meaning of the HAA, when 600 Foothill submitted its application in November 2022. (See AR 5241-5246, 7171; see also Gov. Code §§ 65589.5, subdivision (h)(5) and 65941.1.) During argument, Respondents appeared to conflate the Preliminary Application with a formal project application.

The housing element is a mandatory element of the general plan. (§ 65582, subd. (f).) Section 65589.5, subdivision (o)(1) precludes Respondents from retroactively applying a housing element to a Builder's Remedy project that "vested" before certification of the housing element.

Respondents' vesting argument is also inconsistent with the HAA's policy of promoting housing. (§ 65589.5, subd. (a)(2)(L).) If Respondents' position was correct, as a practical matter "no housing developer would ever submit a builder's remedy application because of the uncertainty about whether the project would remain eligible long enough to be approved." (CHDF Reply 19:8-9.)

600 Foothill's Preliminary Application was "deemed complete," for purposes of the HAA, in November 2022 when 600 Foothill submitted its Preliminary Application. If the Builder's Remedy applies (see infra), it therefore "vested" in November 2022.[15]

The City Could Not Be in Substantial Compliance with the Housing Element Law until it Completed Rezoning

Petitioners contend the City's housing element was not in substantial compliance with the Housing Element Law when 600 Foothill filed its Preliminary Application because the City had not completed the rezoning required by sections 65583, subdivision (c)(1)(A) and section 65583.2, subdivision (c). (See 600 Foothill Opening Brief 12:21-23.) Petitioners are correct.

Section 65588, subdivision (e)(4)(C)(i) states:

> For the adoption of the sixth revision and each subsequent revision, a local government that does not adopt a housing element that the department has found to be in substantial compliance with this article within 120 days of the applicable deadline described in subparagraph (A) or (C) of paragraph (3) shall comply with subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 65583 and subdivision (c) of Section 65583.2 within one year of the statutory deadline to revise the housing element.

Section 65588, subdivision (e)(4)(C)(iii) states:

> A jurisdiction that adopts a housing element more than one year after the statutory deadline described in subparagraph (A) or (C) of paragraph (3) shall not be found in substantial compliance with this article until it has completed the [15] However, the court reaches the same result in its analysis below even if the application was deemed complete or "vested" anytime up to May 1, 2023, the date of City Council's decision. The City did not complete its required rezoning until September 12, 2023. (See § 65588, subd. (e)(4)(C)(iii).)

rezoning required by subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 65583 and subdivision (c) of Section 65583.2. (Emphasis added.)[16]

Thus, the statute mandates the jurisdiction "shall not be found in substantial compliance" until completing the rezoning. (Ibid.)[17] The plain language of the statutory prohibition is not limited to HCD; the prohibition therefore applies to the courts.

As applied here, the City's statutory deadline to adopt a substantially compliant 6th cycle housing element was October 15, 2021. (AR 443.) The City submitted its draft housing element to HCD on October 15, 2021. (AR 443.) Because the City failed to secure certification of its 6th cycle housing element within 120 days of its statutory deadline of October 15, 2021 (see AR 443-447), October 15, 2022 served as the City's deadline to complete its required rezoning. (§ 65583, subd. (c)(1)(A).) It is undisputed the City did not complete the required rezoning until September through November 2023.

Pursuant to the plain language of section 65588, subdivision (e)(4)(C)(iii), the City "shall not be found" in substantial compliance with the Housing Element Law until the City completed its rezoning in September through November 2023. As a result, the City did not have a substantially compliant housing element when 600 Foothill submitted its Preliminary Application to the City in November 2022; the Builder's Remedy therefore applies to the Project.

Respondents do not challenge the plain language interpretation of section 65588, subdivision (e)(4)(C)(iii).[18] Thus, they concede where an agency has failed to adopt a substantially compliant housing element by more than a year after the statutory deadline to do so, the agency cannot be found in substantial compliance with the Housing Element Law by HCD or a court until it

[16] During argument, Respondents objected to the court's consideration of legislative history referenced in the court's tentative order distributed prior to the hearing. The court relied 600 Foothill's RJN, Exh. D at 82 and Exh. E at 149. Respondents correctly argued resort to legislative history here is inappropriate given the plain language of the statute and lack of ambiguity. (See River Garden Retirement Home v. Franchise Tax Bd. (2010) 186 Cal.App.4th 922, 942.) While the parties later agreed the court could rely on all of the evidence that had been submitted by the parties, the court nonetheless revised its decision to eliminate the discussion of legislative history. Given Respondents' argument, there can be no claim the statute is unclear. "If there is no ambiguity, we presume the Legislature meant what is said and the plain meaning of the language controls." (Ibid.)

[17] In any event, as discussed infra, the court concludes the City did not adopt a substantially compliant housing element until after 600 Foothill submitted its complete Preliminary Application. Accordingly, even if the statutory bar of section 65588, subdivision (e)(4)(C)(iii) does not apply to the courts, the court still concludes the Builder's Remedy applies to the Project.

[18] As noted supra in footnote 16, Respondents agree there is no ambiguity in the statute.

completes its required rezoning. (Sehulster Tunnels/Pre-Con v. Traylor Brothers, Inc. (2003) 111 Cal.App.4th 1328, 1345, fn. 16 [failure to address point is "equivalent to a concession"].)

Respondents contend the "City could not rezone until it had a General Plan Housing Element under Section 65860(c), HCD did not promulgate draft [Affirmatively Further Fair Housing] requirements for the 6th Cycle housing element until April 23, 2020, and did not promulgate the final version until April 2021, only six months before the then-existing deadline (within SCAG) for submitting a 6th RHNA Cycle Housing Element." (Opposition to CHDF 8: 11-15.)

Respondents' evidence does not demonstrate actions or omissions of HCD or the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG) precluded the City from adopting a substantially compliant housing element or the required rezoning. Director Koleda advises the final affirmatively further fair housing requirements were available by April 2021, and the City's RHNA increased by only two dwelling units between March 22, 2021 and July 1, 2021. (Koleda Decl. ¶¶ 20, 36.) As persuasively argued by Intervenors, the City "had sufficient time to accommodate its RHNA allocation, or at the very least, the two additional dwelling units added between March and July 2021." (Intervenors' Reply 16, fn. 8.) Respondents also do not show, with persuasive evidence, the timing of HCD's promulgation of affirmatively further fair housing requirements prevented the City from adopting a substantially compliant housing element.

Respondents also argue section 65588, subdivision (e)(4)(C)(iii)'s rezoning requirement "is illegal, unconstitutional, and unenforceable" because "[t]he Government Code specifically contemplates that rezoning will occur after adoption of an amendment to a General Plan, including Housing Elements, ..." (Opposition to Intervenors 12:19, 14:26-27.) Respondents' statutory argument is not fully developed, lacks sufficient analysis of governing legal principles, and is unpersuasive.

Respondents wholly fail to explain how section 65588, subdivision (e)(4)(C)(iii) is "illegal" or "unconstitutional." At most, Respondents assert section 65588, subdivision (e)(4)(C)(iii) conflicts with other statutes requiring consistency between the zoning ordinances of a general law city and its general plan, and the requirement such zoning ordinances be amended "within a reasonable time" to be consistent with a general plan that is amended. (Opposition to Intervenors 13:13-16 [citing § 65860].)

Respondents do not show a conflict between section 65588, subdivision (e)(4)(C)(iii) and section 65860 or any other statute. Contrary to Respondents' assertion, a city could comply with both statutes. Thus, as argued by 600 Foothill, a city could update its zoning simultaneously with the adoption of its housing element. A city could also adopt a housing element that is provisionally certified by HCD and then subsequently complete the rezoning, which is what occurred here. While section 65588, subdivision (e)(4)(C)(iii) may subject a city to the Builder's Remedy it if does not complete its rezoning at the same time adopts its housing element, Respondents do not show such possibility conflicts with section 65860 or that the
